is compying public attention to some extent, no doubt, at the North as well as the South. That will not be allowed to sail. victory rests with the Confederate arms is claimed by our friends and conceded by the for. That our troops proved their physical soperiority even over superior numbers, no one questions; that an arrogant and confident enemy has been at least temperarily humbled, is evident; and inriber, that the sanguine expectsime of the Abelitionits of the North have been gritrously disappointed is apparent. They had mapped out a magnificent progress for their favorita general and one of their best appointed armino, and the check it has received was upon pecie?. What, then, is to be the effect?

We believe an important benefit that will accents to our cause, from the repulse of Rost-CRANS, will occur in the result of the election about to be held in the Northwest. His army was in the main composed of troops from that section, who were generally believed to be the best portion of the Federal army; and their fallure on the field of Chichamauga will serve to strengthen that well senselved convictions a those in the North who oppose the subjugation policy of the dominant party. To conquar is a upossibility, all must see. The peace party has always admitted this, and now when thousands of homes are mourning for their alam kindred, the appeals of that party will be made with effect. It will be appreciated by thousand that a furnished sacriff is of life, without any at empt to adjust the difficulties between the two Sovernments in another way, is folly, and they must be lost to all feelings of humanity i they do not at least give the peace element as opportunity of endeavoring to stop a further effunish of blood. Their losses will bring them to reflect. Hence we induly: strong hopes or this point. The election in Ohio will take place result of the fight was known throughout that Stafe, and it is not unreasonable to anticipate that the Abelition leaders and people will be dispirited, and the Vallantigham party strengthened. There is yet time for a sober accord thought to work, and that it will operate to change the minds of thousands of voters will be but natural.

The leading Democratic papers of Ohio leave for some time elaimed that their triumph on near Thursday week was thevitable. We have believed that they were over conguine, but recent events probably will contribute to make their contoct where the limits are so plainly made. the result at Chickensaugu, and hope to be able to glarunicia the sufficient victory indignitis.
